Riverine Herald Club Spirit

The Riverine Herald Club Spirit Award is for athletes of all age groups. The award recognises not necessarily the best athlete but the athlete who best displays the qualities of sportsmanship, commitment, dedication and club spirit.

Selection criteria includes the player who both on and off the field:

- Shows respect to all
- Interacts positively with team mates
- Supports team mates
- Shows persistence, determination and commitment throughout the season.

Winner: Sadie Smith

Athlete of the Year Nomination

EMLAC Athlete the Year award recognises an athlete that consistently demonstrates the LAVIC sporting values such as sportsmanship, leadership, teamwork and health. Our Little Athlete of the year was also Nominated by our club, for the Coles Little Athlete of the Year for the 21/22 season for showing these values week in week out at EMLAC meets. Our EMLAC little athlete of the year winner is a great representation of these qualities, a role model to his peers and joy to have around the club.

Winner: Ollie Tomkins

Encouragement Award

EMLAC Encouragement Award recognises EMLAC little athletes who regularly display a good attitude towards little athletics, fellow athletes, our volunteers and always strives to do their best regardless of whether they place in an event. It also recognises those willing to put themselves out of their comfort zone and have a go at things they might usually shy away from. This award encourages athletes to always give their best in everything they do both at EMLAC meets and other LAVIC events like, Combined Event, Regional Track and Field and Even State Championships.

Winners: Noah Powderly & Luca Micalizzi

Volunteer of the Season Award

The Centre Volunteer of the Season award is awarded and presented annually to an EMLAC individual in recognition of performing above and beyond the call of duty normally required of a member/volunteer. This person has been judged to have made a significant contribution to the health, welfare and improvement of the centre and its members and exhibits attributes in keeping with the EMLAC core values.

Winner: Leon Connelly
